CJ:

I was one of the 2 men (the younger one ;-)) that was at the NECRWA Chapter meeting yesterday. I wanted to tell you how great I thought your presentation was. You were right about most everything applying to me as a man (although I feel men need to deal with empty nest syndrome as well, especially after a divorce when his time with them is cut to a fraction). But I wanted to say bravo, and that I already ordered a copy of your book from Amazon since I missed the end of the meeting when you did the signing. I'll be reading and getting a copy of Taogirl for my own daughter when she's older as well.

Debby Horowitz, Director Brownstein Jewish Family Service. The Federation, Jewish Communities of Western CT, Inc.

Dear CJ,

Thank you so much for your program on Tuesday! You are an inspiring and dynamic speaker and person, and I was thrilled that so many people came here to hear you!

Many thanks for a very enjoyable and energizing afternoon!

Marty M. member, Ann's Place cancer support group
Hi CJ,
You are a FABULOUS speaker. No wonder you're so busy! Thanks for the book which will help me remember the stages... and also for the wonderful visualization.

Jennie R, Susan G Komen for the Cure
OMG CJ you have no idea what your book has done to me. I work for Susan G Komen for the Cure so when you donated your book The Tao of the Defiant Woman you changed my life. I had to read the book it kept calling my name. So so good. I brought a copy to my BFF she read it and we had to do it. We got the symbol tattooed on our backs. It was the best gift to self for my 30th birthday!!! Awesome!!!
